

10 Commissioned Based Franchised Salons

“The Cosmetologist”

10 COMMISSION BASED FRANCHISED SALONS

1. Supercuts

Supercuts is a well-known hair salon franchise that has been providing affordable haircuts and other hair care services to customers for over 40 years. The franchise was founded in 1975 by Geoffrey Rappaport and Frank

Emmett, who saw an opportunity to provide high-quality haircuts at a fraction of the cost of traditional salons. Since then, Supercuts has grown into a global brand with over 2,600 locations in the United States, Canada, and other countries.

2. Great Clips

Great Clips is a popular hair salon franchise that has been providing affordable haircuts and other hair care services to customers for over 40 years. The franchise was founded in 1982 by Steve Lemmon and David Rubenzer, who saw a need for a no-appointment, walk-in hair salon that offered high-quality haircuts at an affordable price. Since then, Great Clips has grown into a global brand with over 4,400 locations in the United States and Canada.

3. Sport Clips

Sports Clips is a hair salon franchise that was founded in 1993 by Gordon Logan, a former fighter pilot in the United States Air Force. The franchise was created with the goal of providing a unique and enjoyable experience for men and boys who love sports and has since grown into a well-known brand with over 1,800 locations in the United States and Canada.

4. Fantastic Sams

Fantastic Sams is a hair salon franchise that was founded in 1974 by Sam Ross, a stylist with over 20 years of experience in the Hair Care Industry. The franchise was created with the goal of providing affordable and high-quality hair care services to customers of all ages and hair types. Today, Fantastic Sams has over 1,000 locations in the United States and Canada, making it one of the largest hair salon franchises in North America.

5. Snip-its

Snip-its is a hair salon franchise that specializes in haircuts and styling for children. The franchise was founded in 1995 by Joanna Meiseles, a mother who wanted to create a salon that was specifically designed for kids. Today, Snip-its has over 60 locations in the United States, making it a popular choice for parents who want to give their children a fun and stress-free haircut experience.

6. Cost Cutters

Cost Cutters is a hair salon franchise that was founded in 1982 with the goal of providing affordable and convenient haircuts to customers. The franchise has since grown to over 400 locations in the United States, making it a popular choice for customers seeking a quick and affordable haircut.

7. Cookie Cutters Haircuts for Kids

Cookie Cutters Haircuts for Kids is a hair salon franchise that specializes in haircuts and styling for children. The franchise was founded in 1994 by Larry and Cookie Lambert, who saw a need for a hair salon that was specifically designed for kids. Today, Cookie Cutters has over 100 locations in the United States and Canada.

8. Floyd's 99 Barbershop

Floyed's 99 Barbershop, also known as Floyd 9's, is a hair salon franchise that was founded in 1999 by brothers Paul, Rob, and Bill O'Brien. The franchise was created with the goal of providing high-quality haircuts and styling in a unique and laid-back atmosphere.

Today, Floyd 9's has over 100 locations in the United States, making it a popular choice for customers seeking a modern and fun haircut experience.

9. Lemon Tree Family Salons

Lemon Tree is a hair salon franchise that was founded in 1976 by Peter Castellana, a hairstylist who wanted to create a salon that offered high-quality hair care services at affordable prices. Today, Lemon Tree has over 50 locations in the United States, making it a popular choice for customers seeking quality haircuts and other hair care services.

10. Rooster's

Rooster's is a hair salon franchise that specializes in providing a high-end grooming experience for men. The franchise was founded in 1999 by Joe Grondin, who saw a need for a hair salon that offered a refined and sophisticated atmosphere for men. Today, Roosters has over 70 locations in the United State